

Lost a Tooth

Racoon

I heard you lost a tooth somewhere in the river
I heard you say they stole your youth somewhere in the years

I heard you found the blues somewhere along the river
As you came looking for the truth well it never did appear
But if you happen to pass by than please know that you are forgiven

Let us mix the tears with wine and break the silence of the years

We heard you where dead, the book was closed so sad

I'am glad we took a real good look

And found the memories, the memories we once had

And by time you left with you life lost for the living

Could you tell me who was left for dead when people mis you every day

Don't stop dreaming you said, cause there is somuch joy in giving

Yeah let's kick some ass instead and don't you dare give up on me

We heard you where dead, the book was closed, so sad

And found the memories, the memories we once had

And found the memories

We heard you where dead, the book was closed, the news so sad

I'am glad we took a real good look

And found the memories, the memories of our passed

The memories we once had
