

Reach

Racoon

I am sorry that you missed me, guess I'm on my way
Pretty fed up right here, time for me to leave
Pretty sure I cannot stay

You lost your beliefs a little piece of me
I was tied down in your safety net, how much safer can you get You dropped me in the deep and in the deep I cannot breathe

So I reached out and you promised you would help
You walked out, ok I'll back myself
I screamed out, I trusted on your help
You backed out. ok I'll back myself

I was down, I was under and I couldn't break my fall
You crossed your heart, hoped to die, you said to me that I could fly if I wanted to, I couldn't fall

Well you lied

I don't see it anymore, she said don't worry buddy.
Cause they're the same like before

You gotta remember, so you don't forget
Cause if memories save me, then I live I bet
You just got to remember, you'll always forget
So if memories leave, then I guess it means that I'm dead
