

Dreamless Sleep

Radical Face

Lay you down, there's nothing to be scared of
All your fears are in the breeze
Pay no mind, all is taken care of
It's all a dreamless sleep

Behind those heavy eyes
The warm sort of dark fills your mind
Free from the cold grip of time
The worries all melt

Close your eyes, all is taken care of
All your thoughts are in the wind
Go to sleep, there's naught for you to dream of Just wind beneath your feet

Behind those heavy eyes
A warm sort of dark fills your mind
Free from the cold grip of time
The worries just melt
And nothing is felt
Your body could burst
And none of it would hurt
A return to the earth
