

Better Off

Radical Something

Stressed down on my last down
Chest pounds from the sound of the enemy crowd
I'm a stranger in a strange town
They wanna see me fall down
Wanna take my crown
I'm at the line and it's time now
Looking down at my shoes
Sweat soaked in my eye brows
Try to think but it's so loud
Quick snap cut right for the roll out, roll out
I'm golden bear from the bay to La, yo
Put 'em up
Put 'em up
For the team that you play for
Better bury me with me ring when I lay low
Sometimes you lose but you know what we play for

Even the best they can't say, they've never lost
It isn't even a question
You can't change what's dead and gone
Believe me that you're better off

We were born into this world, destiny
From the chamber of the most high almighty
My soul's on fire
Got to ger higher
I'm flying cross the land and I must acquire
All shots aimed and I'm ready to fire
Me nah have fe conspire
I'm a real live wire
Come fe inspire
All the people that's suffering
Keep bluffing I'ma keep on struggling

Even the best they can't say, they've never lost
It isn't even a question
You can't change what's dead and gone
So grab the lighter
Spark the flame
Start the fire
Watch it blaze
It isn't even a question
When I say, "You're better off"
Believe me that you're better off

You're better off
I see the light now
You're better off
So sing it loud and proud

Even the best they can't say, they've never lost
It isn't even a question
You can't change what's dead and gone
So grab the lighter
Spark the flame
Start the fire
Watch it blaze

It isn't even a question
When I say, "You're better off"
Believe me that you're better off
