

Lookin' For Love

Radical Something

I'm Lookin for some Love
Ohhh ahh ohhh yeah
Some Love

I'm hangin round these cities full of people that don't get me
And I'm trying really hard but they forget me
Shake my hand and pretend they never met me
I wish I could be welcomed into arms that were a little more acceptin g
You're staring right through me, oh
And now I wanna say excuse me
Is there something here about me that you find so damn amusing?
It's my style, no?
I guess its just my luck
That I'm stuck in the same damn rut that they dug

I'm Lookin' for some love right now
Can somebody help me in this town?
I'm looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me out?
Singing

Just another dark day, bright lights illuminate the night life
Runaway girls in the lines live a nice life
I'm reaching out to all of them, explaining how to make it
And hoping one day that they create it
Cuz beauty's in your heart let it out let it beat
If you love the world around you then your life will be complete
We all fight the same damn enemies were on the same team
Are any of us worth it if we don't compete?

I'm Lookin' for some love right now
Can somebody help me in this town?
I'm looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me out?
Singing

I'm still lookin for some love
Some love
I'm Lookin' for some love right now
Can somebody help me in this town?
I'm looking for some love right now
Can somebody help me out?
Singing
