

Tomorrow

Radical Something

Let's not be blind to see that all we need's a little peace of mind
So lately I don't get no answers
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow

Let my guitar strings ring
And make sure that you can feel everything
Cuz we can do anything
And finding truth is worthy of the searching
It's learning, giving things up even when we deserve em
And certainly its difficult but answers are out there
You're listening to us, there's no doubt here
That peace of mind is the principal of love
And we'll be just fine when we get to conquer all of the above

Remember why we're here and what we do
Take a chance and we can live our lives
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah

Let's not be blind to see that all we need's a little peace of mind
So lately I don't get no answers
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow

Hey now its your life go get it
If it tries to get you down don't let it
You gotta keep your feet on the ground, your eyes on the sky,
Your glass half full with some sweet red wine,
And give it time--that line could surprise you
But life could surprise you and ride right by you
So until tomorrow don't let anyone define you
And keep your family right beside you

Remember why we're here and what we do
Take a chance and we can live our lives
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah

Let's not be blind to see that all we need's a little peace of mind
So lately I don't get no answers
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow, tomorrow, tomorrow
I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow
Wait for tomorrow, I guess we gotta wait for tomorrow

We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other, yeah
We only got each other
