

Somebody Else

Radiohead

This one is so easy
I may want you today
I may buy you all the things you need
And sleep with you, call you names
But deep down inside
I'm an apple on a naked tree
And nothing will ever change
Because there's somebody else
But I don't know who the hell she is
Or maybe I do
But I'm banging my head
On someone else's bloody brick wall
But somebody just might kill my ache today
There's somebody there
Knocking on my forehead
And talking from inside my brain
They're guiding my thoughts
They're watching me play with you
And they'll never go away
There's somebody else
Though I don't know who it is
She isn't, maybe I'll go away
But I'm banging my head
On somebody else's bloody brick wall
But somebody just might kill my ache today
And I can't understand
Why someone else is in my head
There's somebody else
Knocking on my forehead
And they're inside my brain
And they're guiding my thoughts
And they're watching me play with you
They'll never ever ever go away
Never go away
