Can't say, I cannot say
That deep down inside I don't mind if you die now
Can't say, I cannot say
That way you'll have me forever
I cannot say

Can't say, I cannot say
There's no better way to keep you in my mind
Can't say, I cannot say
Cause I know your lips probably won't mind

Sneaky? Am I? The world is full of contraries

Ah, in the world without you I'll finally be who you want me to be
Ah, you hate lies, here's the world perfect for you

Can't say, I cannot say
To you it's weakness but to me it's a fine mechanism of love

Can't say, I cannot say
Don't wanna hear passion die I would rather…
Can't say, I cannot say
What comes next, though I felt it coming from a while ago
Still, the way your face move is scary that I
Can't say, I cannot say
Either way, for sure, I will break you one day

Surround us with thick rule no one can step into

If you cry, if you laugh, it will collapse
What a thought, what a joke

Don't bother, they don't understand, our love will come around with our cons ent
Love is always desperate, love is not weak
Weak is the dream that love sometimes shows

Can't say, I cannot say
That deep down inside I don't mind if you die now
Can't say, I cannot say
I's because I want to continue to live inside
That little heart of yours

Can't see, I cannot see
Can't erase, I cannot erase

Ah, in the world without you I finally won't get lost
Ah, you hate lies, the world which disappointed you will end today
"Ah, you are not here" woes the world, I don't give a damn

"Good night"
