

Nanoka (ナノカ; Seven Song)

RADWIMPS

Talking to my favorite songs and I'm about to fly
I wish that I'd be there next to closest by your side
'So am i', well, who am I?

Reality knocks on my door and I'm about to cry
I tried to shut down the world but it's time to say good-bye
You and I will live and die, well so what

Cuz I wanna be with you
Cuz I wanna be with you
Cuz I wanna be with you
Until I die

Cuz I wanna be with you
Cuz I wanna be with you
Cuz I wanna be with you
Until I die

Talking to my favorite songs and I'm about to fly
I wish that I'd be there next to closest by your side
'So am i'. Well, who am I?

Reality knocks on my door and I'm about to cry
I tried to shut down the world but it's time to say good-bye
You and I will live and die, well so what

Cuz I wanna be with you
Cuz I wanna be with you
Cuz I wanna be with you
Until I die

Though I've never thought my face was really one to say something like that about

Though I haven't pledged anything, well, though I might have once
None of that matters, because you said you liked this face of mine
You say that for me, you compliment me, so for that part of me, I'm thankful To my mom and dad. I'm truly thankful. They're geniuses for creating me like this

To match the preferences of the person I love. How can I do something like that?

Even if I'm told it's just a fluke, there might still be a knack to it
If there is, I want someone to secretly tell me, I want them to let me use it one day

I want my children to match with someone also

Cuz I wanna be with you

Cuz I wanna be with you

Cuz I wanna be with you

Until I die

I'm not a 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6 (useless)

So the truth is being with you is not an 8, 9, or 10

I understand the point, but I can't help it, I've become like this

I won't allow people to tell me it's a waste, well at least if I'm told that , I won't worry about it

Whatever's done to me, said to me, whatever looks I'm exposed to

Even if I'm told that my life will end tomorrow, the day after, the day after that

It's all fine

Because on this earth, on this earth of my most important person

This earth where I was able to become a most important person is the best

There's no need to speak of what's to come, I'm fine just thinking about it

Because I don't plan to compete with someone, but I don't feel at all like I 'll lose

So should I say it, I'll say it after all, but what to do? I won't after all

Because there was no "win" or "lose" in the first place, and I don't know how to judge it

By the way, back to the earlier topic, even though I said not a 6 or whatever

There's only one more answer to the question "then what exactly are you?"

I think there's no need to say it, because of course, the answer's a 7

Because as you know, there's luck on this head of mine

Cuz I wanna be with you

Cuz I wanna be with you

Cuz I wanna be with you

Until I die
