

My God

Rae Morris

When I'm lost and lonely
I'm crying out
I thought myself, I thought myself
When I'm lost and lonely
And I cannot hide it
Looking for like
I'm looking for life

Wait on the other side, know we lived
And stay out of each other's way
To listen again
You didn't think that I knew when I don't
Long, lost and alone is what I've become
We can't keep off the love we make
So I'll keep on talking to MY GOD, MY GOD
MY GOD, MY GOD

When my conscious closes
And I'm damned in hell
We've hurt ourselves, we've hurt ourselves
We're only, other side where we left
And stay out of each other's way
To listen again
You didn't think that I knew when I don't
Long, lost and alone is what I've become
We can't keep off the love we make
So I'll keep on talking to MY GOD, MY GOD
MY GOD, MY GOD

I hate all, all of the moments we spent
I hate all, all of the words I said!

You didn't think that I knew when I don't
Long, lost and alone is what I've become
We can't keep off the love we make
So I'll keep on talking to MY GOD, MY GOD
MY GOD, MY GOD
