

the old blackpool tower

Rae Morris

I am spitting from the top
Like I'm just another raindrop
From the stars to the gutter
Or the gutter to the stars, just a raindrop
Nobody knows, nobody knows I'm there
Nobody knows, nobody seems to care
To care I'm there

Spitting from the top off the old Blackpool tower
The people by the slots, getting caught in the showers
They look like little dots, but I don't feel empowered
'Cause I'm just a fellow dot standing on a higher spot

And I'm spitting from the top
Like I'm just another raindrop
From the stars to the gutter
Or the gutter to the stars, just a raindrop
Nobody knows (Nobody knows), nobody knows I'm there
Nobody knows, nobody seems to care
To care I'm there

Spitting from the top, just a drop in the ocean
Drippy, drippy drop, watch it fall in slow motion
Spitting from the top, just a drop in the ocean
Drippy, drippy drop, watch it fall in slow motion
No one ever stops, but I live for the notion
'Cause we're just tiny dots in the town that they forgot

Nobody knows, nobody knows I'm there
Nobody knows, nobody seems to care
To care I'm there

Raindrops falling down
Raindrops falling down
Raindrops falling down
Raindrops falling down
