

More Than Me and You

Raef

I'm scared to death but I'm happy
I don't know what to do
You came to me and said
Babe, guess what?! I think our dream's finally coming true
A tiny gift from heaven
I can't believe it's real
A test for us to relish
This new love that we feel

And now our hearts are sealed together
And now our lives will change forever
I thank God for that tiny beating heart
A love so true
I guess it's gonna be more than me and you

I'll take good care of your taste buds
And learn to count in weeks
While you keep you her warm from this worldly storm
I'll sing you both to a cozy sleep
A soul we'll share between us
With His guidance from up above
There's an angel growing
And it's got you glowing
With noor from all His love

And now our hearts are sealed together
And now our lives will change forever
I thank God for that tiny beating heart
A love so true
I guess it's gonna be more than me and you

I'm counting my blessings from the moment that I met you
And patiently waiting for our dream to come true
It's already written, so I prayed for you and me
And whatever happens : It's Allah's mercy

And now our hearts are sealed together
And now our lives will change forever
I thank God for that tiny beating heart
A love so true
I guess it's gonna be more than me and you

And now our hearts are sealed together
And now our lives will change forever
I thank God for that tiny beating heart
A love so true
I guess it's gonna be more than me and you
More than me and you
