

Sunken Ships

Raef

Sunken ships hold their glory
Honest hearts are playful
Times are tough ahead from now
But patience is beautiful

A time may come when you're alone
And loved ones left forever
That stubborn ache won't go away
But hope is so much better

Stand up! Stand up!
It's your stage now
Wake up! Wake up! it's time to shine!
Say my inner-me is my enemy
No, I'm not gonna fall this time!

Stand up! Stand up!
It's your stage now
Wake up! Wake up! it's time to shine!
Say my inner-me is my enemy
And I'm gonna win this fight!

What you wish is what you get
It's been that way for ages
A lovely tune may sour soon
And times will turn the pages

Look around, you're not alone
Together we will beam
A helping hand will go a long way
And take you to your dreams

Stand up! Stand up!
It's your stage now
Wake up! Wake up! it's time to shine!
Say my inner-me is my enemy
No, I'm not gonna fall this time!

Stand up! Stand up!
It's your stage now
Wake up! Wake up! it's time to shine!
Say my inner-me is my enemy
And I'm gonna win this fight!

Just remember when you thought it was the end
You know His love is true, the courage lies in you!
The pain you have is real, so take your time to heal
In his name just say, I'm gonna win today!

Stand up! Stand up!
It's your stage now
Wake up! Wake up! it's time to shine!
Say my inner-me is my enemy
No, I'm not gonna fall this time!

Stand up! Stand up!
It's your stage now

Wake up! Wake up! it's time to shine!
Say my inner-me is my enemy
And I'm gonna win this fight!
My inner-me is my enemy
And I'm gonna win this fight
