

Trust

Raef

I am broken
How can it be?
Is all I've ever known a twisted lie to me?
I am drowning
It's hard to breathe
Is my faith in God alone enough for me?
Was the peace I felt at all real?
Can these words somehow help me heal?

I'm putting all my trust in You Allah
It really feels like I've lost it all
Hope is slowly fading away
But at the end of the day
I trust only You Allah

Our stars are burning
As we watch them fall
Is there any good left in this world at all?
We're only human
And that's what they say
But can I really brush this painful feeling away?
Was the peace I felt at all real?
Can these words somehow help me heal?

I'm putting all my trust in You Allah
It really feels like I've lost it all
Hope is slowly fading away
But at the end of the day
I trust only You Allah

We've built them high, only to cheer their fall
All for a like and and a thousand shares
Redemption lost, all of our wounds are raw
Leaving us cold and blue
O Allah we turn to You

I'm putting all my trust in You Allah
It really feels like I've lost it all
Hope is slowly fading away
But at the end of the day
I trust only You Allah

I'm putting all my trust in You Allah
It really feels like I've lost it all
Hope is slowly fading away
But at the end of the day
I trust only You Allah

Trust only You Allah
Only You Allah
