

Fall Together

RaeLynn

I could kiss you like it's the first time
Or for the first time, second guess
Let my chest get to my head
Or put my head right on your chest
I could let go or I could let go of the past
If only I could let go of that

I could be good or good at being bad
It's too bad we can't be good
Woulda, coulda, shoulda
And the biggest ones we should
Just call it day, but I called you today
Like I knew I would

Baby, I'm all out or I'm all in
Boy, we lose or, boy, we win
It all depends on how we storm this weather
We either fall apart or we fall together

You take after your daddy
And I'm nothing like my mom
So I know there ain't no way in hell
Heaven knows if things go wrong
We can't make it right
That's why I ain't left you tonight

Baby, I'm all out or I'm all in
Boy, we lose or, boy, we win
It all depends on how we storm this weather
We either fall apart or we fall together

(Ooh)
(Fall together)
(Ooh)
(Fall together)

Forever and ever
For better or worse
But I need better than worse

Baby, I'm all out or I'm all in
Boy, we lose or, boy, we win
It all depends on how we storm this weather
We either fall apart or we fall together

We either fall apart or we fall together
