

Arrogance and Ignorance

Rage

Pride and fall, is in us all
The patriot is playing god

All those years we lost, they passed us by
And we never tried to find a way to save the day
Can't you see this is reality
Don't you know that this is not a game to start again?

All that we can do in this act
Is play the starring role and let it go
Yeah

Lies are falling from a blood red sky
We are going down in arrogance and ignorance
Dying cities, no one there to cry
Our ruin will be arrogance and ignorance

We're suffering to serve a king
All hate and war against us all

See that young man there, his head in hands
While the fire takes his home and kills his family
His last choice is which way he will die
He remembers all the signs that he ignored to see

All that he can do at last
Is realize - perception comes too late
Yeah

Lies are falling from a blood red sky
We are going down in arrogance and ignorance
Dying cities, no one there to cry
Our ruin will be arrogance and ignorance

Arrogance is just a sign
Of stupidity and fear
Ignorance walks hand in hand
Both will bring our downfall here

Lies are falling from a blood red sky
We are going down in arrogance and ignorance
Dying cities, no one there to cry
Our ruin will be arrogance and ignorance

All that we can do is let it go
Yeah
