

Cross The Line

Rage

I cross the line

I have walked so many miles from here
In these dirty, worn out boots
I have tasted from this poisoned wine
That was killing all my roots

But time, it seems to pass me by
I guess I better run

I cross the line, I changed my mind
I'm not abandoned from my future anymore
I cross the line, it's about time
That I can save my life, can save my sanity
I cross the line

On my journey through these wasted years
I was creeping like a slave
Like a shadow, never reached my size
Always one foot in the grave

But time, it seems to pass me by
I guess I better run

I cross the line, I changed my mind
I'm not abandoned from my future anymore
I cross the line, it's about time
That I can save my life, can save my sanity
I cross the line

Oh

Oi

Oi

Oi

I cross the line

Now I will save my life, will save my sanity

I cross the line, I changed my mind
I'm not abandoned from my future anymore
I cross the line, it's about time
That I can save my life, can save my sanity
I cross the line
I cross the line
