

Empty Hollow (Part 4: Connected)

Rage

Open these soul cages, fill my blank pages

So love becomes my saviour
It's creeping underneath my skin
Gets me connected

Like notes can turn to music
We spin a web that makes us more
More than we are
Just let it happen

I try to reach my hand out
And wonder what may come to me
I let it happen

Like raindrops in a river
We can be part of bigger things
And if we dare
We get connected
