

Fire In Your Eyes

Rage

I'm blessed when I see it burning
It takes me by surprise
The passion for the moment
It is the fire in your eyes

We're touched by a higher power
And filled with the light of love
Deep in our veins, it's burning
This is the fire in your eyes

What more has a life to offer?
A spark of eternity
We're one in a greater moment
I love the fire in your eyes

So glad when I see you smiling
The glimpse when we recognise
The glow in this stream of life is
A sign of what we are about

No need for an explanation
No fear we could fall apart
We're here and that's all we need now
So keep that fire in your eyes

What more has a life to offer?
A spark of eternity
We're one in a greater moment
I love the fire in your eyes
We're touched by a higher power
And filled with the light of love
Deep in our veins, it's burning
This is the fire in your eyes

What more has a life to offer?
A spark of eternity
We're one in a greater moment
I love the fire in your eyes
We're touched by a higher power
And filled with the light of love
Deep in our veins, it's burning
This is the fire in your eyes

What more has a life to offer?
A spark of eternity
I love the fire in your eyes
We're touched by a higher power
And filled with the light of love
This is the fire in your eyes
