

Leave Behind

Rage

Do you believe in good or bad?
The arranged fate, alive or dead

How can I escape this prison?
Let me find a greater vision
Let's jump through the eye of the black storm

I see a new horizon
Dawn of our future rising
Leave all this darkness, leave behind
Words that remain unspoken
Out of the heart that's broken
Out of this wasteland, leave behind

There is a memory in my head
Of times when we had no regrets

And there is a multiplier
That supports the biggest liars
Let's jump through the eye of the black storm

I see a new horizon
Dawn of our future rising
Leave all this darkness, leave behind
Words that remain unspoken
Out of the heart that's broken
Out of this wasteland, leave behind

I see a new horizon
Dawn of our future rising
Leave all this darkness, leave behind
Words that remain unspoken
Out of the heart that's broken
Out of this wasteland, leave behind
