

To Live and to Die

Rage

Well, I just heard your news, so sad
Now, I just can't get your story out of head
You don't deserve such bitter fate
You had no chance to turn around, now it's too late

Out of my head
Now it's too late cause you are dead
I've always known that our world is rarely fair
But sometimes tragedies, they drive me to despair

It's to live and to die
To laugh and to cry
A wink of your eye
To live and to die
To live and die

We are just guests on earth, you know
The more we feel were safe the faster it gets lost
How many hours, days and years
We never know the story's end, how many tears

Out of my head
Now its too late cause you are dead
It always looks coincidental to the eye
Or is our story written, is it all decided?

To live and to die
To laugh and to cry
A wink of your eye
To live and to die
Yeah, to live and die

To live and to die
To laugh and to cry
A wink of your eye
To live and to die
Yeah, to live and die

To live and to die
To laugh and to cry
A wink of your eye
To live and to die
Yeah, to live and die
