

Fearless, swimming in the river
Of all life, we're born here
And we trust, we let it go
Never we'd deny it
Understand in reason
That this world would feed us all

When there came all evil in a snake
Disturbing our dreams, left us awake
We would taste perception, feel a need
To refresh our demon's greed

We were born from virginity
Now we live in pain, live in fear
We have lost our virginity
Did we all forget why we're here?

Dead man - we have killed our brother
Slayed him from behind and
Broke the rules, we lost our freedom
Now we had to hide us
From revenge and hatred
Waiting for our judgement day

We have walked this line, so far away
Impossible to turn and seize the day
We decided for our souls to bleed
And refreshed our demon's greed

We were born from virginity
Now we live in pain, live in fear
We have lost our virginity
Did we all forget why we're here?

We were born from virginity
Now we live in pain, live in fear
We have lost our virginity
Did we all forget why we're here?
We were born from virginity
Now we live in pain, live in fear
We have lost our virginity
Did we all forget why we're here?
