

It Can't Be Right

Raghav

Ohhhhhh

I know I shouldn't but I got to see you tonight
I'll pick you up around nine,
But I swear that this can't happen no more,
Cause when I'm looking in my baby's eyes
I can't bare to tell her more lies
I gotta be stronger now then I was before
But when you hold me girl it's so real
I'm feeling things 4 u I can't feel
I know I shouldn't stay but girl I just can't leave

This can't be right
But it doesn't feel so wrong
But when I'm all alone,
I'm thinking of you but I'm with her
This can't be right that it's you that's on my mind (my mind)
But she's still in my life (yo)
But your the one that's stands by my side

I wanna let go but there's something that makes me hold on (tell em)
But baby this just can't go on,
And we're better off with nobody knows
I never thought we would of lasted so long
So perfect but girl it's so wrong
Cause I got some body waiting at home
But when you hold me girl it's so real
I'm feeling things for you I can't feel
I know I shouldn't stay but girl I just can't leave

This can't be right
But it doesn't feel so wrong (so wrong)
But when I'm all alone (all alone)
I'm thinkin of you but I'm with her
This can't be right that it's you that's on my mind
But she's still in my life
But your the one that stands by my side

Girl you know I can't, there's to much to lose
It's you that I want but, put yourslef in her shoes
It hurts to think if she only knew
What'd be on her mind, what she'd be going throughhhhhhhh

This can't be right
But it doesn't feel so wrong
But when I'm all alone
I'm thinking of you but I'm with her
This can't be right that it's you that's on my mind
But she still in my life
But your the one that stands by my side
