

Reasons

Raghav

I bet you don't love me
I bet you don't need
But I'm praying that someday
Baby you'll see
The more I seem to want you girl
The less that I can do
If I could list them one by one
The reasons I need you
A whisper a picture I'm holding in my mind
Of may be a baby or two in our in our lives
A moment so golden
I'm holding on for life

Yeah yeah yeah tell me
You know it ain't right baby
So now would you take me for all that I am
I'm hoping you'll hold me
And make me your man
The more I seem to want you
The less that I can do
If I cloud list them one by one
The reasons I need you

I'm hoping you love me
I'm hoping you'll need
Could today be that someday
That you start to believe
The more I seem to want you girl
The less that I can do
If I could list them one by one
The reasons I need you
The reasons I need you
The reasons I need you
