

So Much

Raghav

Shes like them reese's peanut buttercups, mm that I love so much
I just can't get enough, my baby, ah-ah-ah-ah-ah Mm and shes off to touch but sometimes she costs too much but then she burn it up and I be like mmmm, ahhhh

I remember everybody said it, is it love your getting but I just said
forget it nananana
But everytime she put it on me oooh I think shes got me cause now I'm feeling oh so lalalalalala

I never knew that I could feel it so much, much
But now I know it cause I feel it so much, much
Even if I tried, couldn't think of no one
Who does it quite like you do
Its so much, much, much

Yeah girl you fill me up, flavour in every cup Strawberry, vanilla, I clean it up, mmm ahh
I just see something new within your every move Thats why I look at you more then mooore

I remember everybody said it, is it love your getting but I just said
forget it nananana
feeling oh so lalalalalala

I never knew that I could feel it so much, much
But now I know it cause I feel it so much, much
Even if I tried, couldn't think of no one
Who does it quite like you do
Its so much, much, much

Day after day time, after time you can find a brand new way to shine
Never been more then that desire you keep me satisfied
So don't stop now girl just keep it going

I feel it in places that I can't talk about on this station
This girls my animation call it to life beauty check the alligation
I'll go to any location, just to feel that 3D sensation
So much in the hips and the lips when I see her around I lose my conc entratation
Can't hold back, temptations crazy when I see her combination
Your the drug every man that see her try to be apart of her congregat ion
She fly, as shes noticed no she won't just give any man conversation
So much that I can't do nothing but get out of my seat but standing o vation

I never knew that I could feel it so much, much
But now I know it cause I feel it so much, much
Even if I tried, couldn't think of no one

Who does it quite like you do
Its so much, much, much
