

Breath In Me

Rag'n'Bone Man

Call me in the morning
Call me in the night
Call me when the darkness swallows your light
Tell me all the secrets you can't tell nobody else
You can scream the house down if it helps

One day you're gonna leave me behind
Keep this in mind

As long as I have breath in me
I know who I'm supposed to be
I will live or die happily
Just to know you're free
Just to know you're free

Call me when you wake up
When there's tears running down
Call me just to tell me about this new love you found
Tell me that you're fearless in your wildest dreams, and I'll say
It's not as crazy as it seems

One day you're gonna leave me behind
Keep this in mind

As long as I have breath in me
I know who I'm supposed to be
I will live or die happily
Just to know you're free
Just to know you're free

As long as I have breath in me
I know who I'm supposed to be
I will live or die happily
Just to know you're free
Just to know you're free
