

Chokehold

Rag'n'Bone Man

Maybe I'm hooked on your highs and lows
It's getting harder to breathe
I don't understand it but all I know
Is baby, this love's got a chokehold on me

Like a prisoner in chains
Like a moth to a flame
Oh, Lord
You leave me colder than a rain
Throw me away but I'm a boomerang

I keep on running back to you again
I say that I'm leaving you but then
Oh, Lord
I hear you laugh 'cause we both know
That baby, this love's got a chokehold

Maybe I'm hooked on your highs and lows
It's getting harder to breathe
I don't understand it but all I know
Is baby, this love's got a chokehold on me

Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
A hold on me, yeah
Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
'Cause baby this love's got a chokehold

Like a magnet to the steel
I'm attracted to the thrill
You make me fight against my will
And I'd be dead if looks could kill

Every time we touch, it's bittersweet
Breaks me and brings me down to my knees
Can't pull away from the energy
But I'd rather be here with you all over me

Maybe I'm hooked on your highs and lows
It's getting harder to breathe
I don't understand it but all I know
Is baby, this love's got a chokehold on me

Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
A hold on me, yeah
Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
Chokehold, chokehold
I'm telling you this love's got a chokehold on me
