

Ghosts

Rag'n'Bone Man

As I lie, I lie awake
Twisting words you never say
Chasing shadows, chasing shadows

I hear laughing in the street
The world is burning underneath
In the shadows, in the shadows

Everything that's gonna be
Is gonna be a memory
But we are in this moment now

Before the morning breaks
Before we turn to ghosts
Before the thunder shakes
Into your very bones
Hey, these are the days
These are the days we own
Before the morning breaks
Before we turn to ghosts

Racing thoughts fill up my brain
Pacing tigers in a cage
Chasing freedom, chasing freedom

Everything that's gonna be
Is gonna be a memory
But we are in this moment now

Before the morning breaks
Before we turn to ghosts
Before the thunder shakes
Into your very bones
Hey, these are the days
These are the days we own
Before the morning breaks
Before we turn to ghosts
Before we turn to ghosts

Hey, these are the days
These are the days we own
Before the morning breaks
Before we turn to ghosts
