

From Lust, Till Dawn

Raheem DeV Vaughn

Bonsoir (Yeah)
Or should I say, "Bonjour" (Yeah)
I guess it's morning now, huh?
You have such a beautiful smile
My French? I'm working on
I'm, I'm, um, voulez-vous?

Let's not pretend that we
Are here to be in a fairytale
When, in fact, I find it rather cliché
Sing, "What begins always ends well"
Well, I can, well, I can be your nightcap
At 3AM in Paris
That one indiscretion you take to the grave
And let the scale weigh the balance

Oh, but if this is (This)
If this is love, then first, I
(Let it be) Let it be
(Let it be) Let it be
And if this is
This is just lust for one night
Let it be
Let it be love or lust 'til dawn

Love [?] is almost near
If I could stay here
Until you want me to
And, darling, let me make it clear
I could never judge you
Even if I wanted to

(But I promise)
But I promise that this will be a memory you'll reminisce
And I know for you, I just might be a conquest
But enjoy the moment, less talk and lay your head upon my chest
With no reservations, no complications

Oh, but if this is (This)
If this is love, then first, I
(Let it be) Let it be
(Let it be) Let it be
And if this is
This is just lust for one night
Let it be
Let it be love or lust 'til dawn
Oh, but if this is
If this is love, then first, I
(Let it be) Let it be
(Let it be) Let it be
And if this is
This is just lust for one night
Let it be
Let it be love or lust 'til dawn

This date started watchin' the sunset
(Let it be, let it be)

It's concludin' watchin' the sun rise (Love or lust 'til dawn)
(Let it be) Shall I compare thee to a summer's day?
(Love or lust 'til dawn) Way hotter
I mean (Love or lust 'til dawn)
I don't even mind... (Let it be, let it be)
