

Just Fall in Love

Raheem DeVaughn

Don't miss out on the good things
The happiness love could bring
Playing yourself on those things
Telling yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Don't tell yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Don't play yourself, just fall in love

I been round the world, dating many girls
Broke a heart or two
I been cheated on, seen my share of karma
Know what cheaters do
I see many options, like I'm window shopping
Like when changing shoes
Plus, daddy was a player, it was in my blood, yeah
But I never knew

The man with many women (the man with many women)
Gets a pat on the back (oh, yeah, yeah)
The woman with many men (the woman with many men)
They call her hoe behind her back (a hoe behind her back)
When they turn the tables on us
As men we can never handle that (we can never handle that)
That's what would cause a double standard (oh, yeah, yeah)
Now that's facts on facts (but as a player I had to learn)

Don't miss out on the good things
The happiness love could bring
Playing yourself on those things
Telling yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Hey, don't tell yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Don't play yourself, just fall in love

The one that got away, she's always on my mind
She's always in my dream, yeah
I heard she got some kids now, I heard she got a home now
Heard she got the ring, yeah
She used to be my queen girl, once upon a time, yeah
I was her king
Till I played myself
Chasing someone else

The man with many women (the man with many women)
Gets a pat on the back (oh, why, why, why, why, why)
The woman with many men
They call her hoe behind her back (I don't know, all I know, all I know is)
When they turn the tables on us (we can't)
As men we can never handle that (oh no)
That's what would cause a double standard (listen)
Now that's facts on facts (hey player, hey player, hey player)

Don't miss out on the good things (oh, no no)
The happiness love could bring (oh, yeah yeah)
Playing yourself on those things
Telling yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Don't tell yourself, "Don't fall in love" (love, love, love, love, love)
Don't play yourself, just fall in love

My OG told me shorty did him scandalous
Almost forty, still can't be romantic
That's 'cause all these hoes been with the antics
Be the one to save me from my damage
What's forever? That's whenever, that's whatever
That's that telling me I'm wrong to make me better
They're taking all my stress when you can see I'm under pressure
Vouching when I'm gone and let me label you my reference
But with you I see that never your loyalty never shook
Try to get bitches credit, they promises leave me broke
When the devil disguised just pray that it ain't my bro
If my baby mama turn ratchet, I pray that she keep it low
I need more than what I'm used to but missing what I'm used to
I just wanna chill and watch some fighting comps on YouTube
No more of your who's-who's and asking me what's real shit
Every time we talk we always stumble on your guilt trips
I'm saying I can't fuck with

Don't miss out on the good things
The happiness love could bring
Playing yourself on those things
Telling yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Don't tell yourself, "Don't fall in love"
Don't play yourself, just fall in love
Don't miss out on the good things
The happiness love could bring
Playing yourself on those things
Telling yourself, "Don't fall in love"
