

Memory Lane

Raheem DeVaughn

I stumbled on this photograph
It kind of made me laugh
It took me way back
Back down memory lane
I see the happiness
I see the pain
Where am I? Oh
Back down memory lane
I see ya standing there
Such a happy, happy pair
Love beyond compare
Look up there, look up there

The way you held me, uh
No one could tell me that love would die
Oh

Why ya had to find this photograph?
I thought I had forgot the past
But now I'm slippin' fast (Oh)
Back down memory lane
Feel the happiness
I feel the pain
Here am I, oh
Back down memory lane
I'm in the sunshine
I'm in the rain
Thought it was over
But here I go again

The way you held me, uh
No one could tell me that love would die
Oh

Oh

I don't wanna go
Traveling up and down
Faster than the speed of sound
Back down memory lane
You steal my foolish heart
Don't let the feeling stop
Back down memory lane

Save me (Save me)
Save me (Save me)
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Back down memory lane
Save me (Save me)
Save me, save me, save me, save me (Save me)
Back down memory lane
Oh, oh
Aye-aye, aye-aye-aye
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah
Back down memory lane
Oh, oh
Aye-aye, aye-aye-aye

Ooh, oh
Back down memory lane
Save me (Save me)
Save me, save me, save me, save me, 'ave me
Back down memory lane

Look in the pot, doo-doo-doo
The way you held me
The doo-doo-doos go on both of those parts, it's like two parts with that
