

Roses

Raheem DeV Vaughn

Not to be cliché
But when roses ain't red
And violets ain't blue
This heart here that beats
Belongs to you

When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
There'll be a me
Right next to you
When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
This heart here that beats
Belongs to you
Roses

I'll love you in the dead of winter
I'll love you in the rain of spring
I'll love you when you fall asleep at night
I'll love you in my daydreams
I need you how I need my heart to beat
I need you like the air I breathe
I'll love you like the word 'forever'
And that means I'll never leave

You gave me something
Something to believe in
When I was broken (I was broken)
Girl you [?] (You did that [?])
Somethin' so addictive
My heart is open
So, so when, roses ain't red

When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
There'll be a me
Right next to you
When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
This heart here that beats
Belongs to you
Roses

This life or the after
Through the tears and the laughter
I'll be your anchor
I'll be your rapture
For even roses have thorns baby
When roses thorns baby
I've been too loyal to turn my back on my baby

See you gave me something
Something to believe in
When I was broken
You gave me something to believe in baby

Girl you did [?]
Somethin' so addictive
My heart is open
Now my heart belongs to you, only you
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
There'll be a me
Right next to you
When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
This heart here that beats
This heart that beats, beats, beats, beats, beats
Belongs to you

When roses ain't red
When violets ain't blue
There'll be a me
Right next to you (Baby, baby)
When roses ain't red (Right next to you)
(When violets ain't blue
This heart here that beats
Right here it beats
Belongs to you
Roses)
