

Special Occasion

Raheem DeVaughn

It's a celebration tonight
Something like an anniversary
And woman, you're a special occasion
And let me tell you what I want you to do

Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down, pour one up
And pop the wine girl
Tonight's a special occasion
Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down, pour one up
And pop the wine girl
You're such a special occasion

Tonight, opens doors from you
Cook a meal for you, even feed it to you
Oh oh tonight (Tonight)
Start a shower for you
Ladder and bathe your body down too
'Cause like anniversary, you're such a special occasion

Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down (Baby), pour one up
And pop the wine girl
Tonight's a special occasion
(When you pull up to my driveway)
Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down, pour one up
(Pour one up and smoke and pop and whine)
And pop the wine girl
You're such a special occasion

Tonight, spoiled and pampered by you
With that baby oil on you
Light some candles all across the room
Tonight (Can I turn?)
Turn off the lights (Turn 'em off)
To create an ambiance
A celebration
A celebration of this precious black child
Please come knocking on my door

Close the door (When you pull up), when you pull up
Play a while (Got that Erykah), my bottle plate (Badu playing baby)
Break it down, pour one up
And pop the wine girl
(Cause tonight)
Tonight's a special occasion
(Tonight's a special, special occasion)
Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down, pour one up
And pop the wine girl

You're such a special occasion

All day, all day
I've been tweaking, I've been ready
We're preparing for that slow jam
With that red line, [?] anniversary
We're spilling black love in this room
Incense and your perfume
We're celebrating like an anniversary baby
You're that special, look at you

Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down (Break it down, roll one up), pour one up
And pop the wine girl
(Darling)
Tonight's a special occasion
(Is a special occasion)
Close the door when you pull up
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down, pour one up
And pop the wine girl
You're such a special occasion

Close the door when you pull up
(Like it's our anniversary)
Play a while, my bottle plate
Break it down, pour one up
And pop the wine girl
(Like it's our anniversary)
Tonight's a special occasion
(Like it's our anniversary)
(Like it's our anniversary)
Tonight's a special occasion
