

Wait On Me

Raheem DeVaughn

(Hello?)

Don't move on from me, just hold on to me
Baby, just wait, just stay close, don't run too far from me (Hello?)
You say that you wanna leave, but that's not fair to me
I mean for you, I'm confused, don't know where I wanna be (I don't know)

'Cause one too many times did I let my heart fail me
One too many times did I let a man tell me "no"
That I'm with you, it wasn't true, what do you want me to do?
I got trust issues though they're not with you

Won't you just wait
Wait on, wait on me? (No)
I need you to wait (Wait)
Wait on, wait on me (Yeah, yeah, don't you dare, yeah)
No, don't you dare go fall in love on me
Give me a little more time to work on me (Yeah, yeah)
Say you will wait
Wait on, wait on me
Oh, wait (This is the remix)

How you gon' act like that?
I know you see me ringin' your phone back to back
You been leavin' all my text messages on "read"
Actin' like you don't see
And you already got a new friend
Told ya, where does that leave me? No
I play myself when I play with you
I make mistakes, you make some too
So, baby, please, don't you get it?
I'm sorry, girl, I regret it

I just wanna hear you say

Won't you just wait (Wait, wait, wait, wait, wait on me)
Wait on, wait on me? (Ooh, baby, say you need me)
I need you to wait (Wait)
Wait on, wait on me (Oh, don't you dare fall in love)
No, don't you dare go fall in love on me (Oh no)
Give me a little more time to work on me (Yeah, yeah)
Say you will wait (Wait on)
Wait on, wait on me
Oh, wait (Oh, I'm sorry, baby)

One too many times did I let my heart fail me (That was my last time)
One too many times did I let a man tell me "no"
Please reconsider to take me back as soon as you ever reply
I'll be waiting on ya
