

Joy

Rahsaan Patterson

At this point in my life
Clearly I can see
All the gifts He bestowed upon me
That is why...deep inside
I have...this joy

There was once a time
My soul was searching to find
A place to nest...now in this joy
I can rest

Now my heart holds the love
He has given me, and that's all
That I'll ever need...to live,
Believe, and spread His love
I'm so glad I have this joy
