

Calling

Raign

I hear a calling out to me all the time
All the voices all around me like a dream
There was a talking come alive like a sign
All the choices fall around me, set me free

I got so close that I could touch it
All my patience not for nothing
I found my way, I learned my lessons
Felt the pain but reached for heaven
I will rise

I hear a calling out to me all the time
I feel it now, I feel it coming
I hear a calling like a dream
In the silence I should breathe, I feel it coming
I hear a calling

I break the fever, clear the storm for the sun
Take this moment not for granted, not for love
Walk on the water and let it wash all over us
Is it all that I have wanted, all I've done?

I got so close that I could touch it
All my patience not for nothing
I found my way, I learned my lessons
Felt the pain but reached for heaven
I will rise

I hear a calling out to me all the time
I feel it now, I feel it coming
I hear a calling like a dream
In the silence I should breathe, I feel it coming
I hear a calling

I hear a calling out to me all the time
I feel it now, I feel it coming
I hear a calling like a dream
In the silence I should breathe

I hear a calling out to me all the time
I feel it now, I feel it coming
I hear a calling like a dream
In the silence I should breathe, I feel it coming
I hear a calling

All the time, I feel it now
I hear a calling
So in the silence I should breathe
I hear a calling
