That's it
It's hard

I can't forget you

It hurts
Because you're the same
As me

When I open my eyes
Because of everything I did with you
I don't wanna open my eyes

All day, I organize your stuff
Then I miss you again

I know you can't ever
Come back to me again
But please remember me

I know you can't ever
Smile for me again
But I'll always remember
Your scent

My greed loved you too much
It set us on fire

When I open my eyes
Because of everything I did with you
I don't wanna open my eyes

All day, I organize your stuff
Then I miss you again

I know you can't ever
Come back to me again
But please remember me

I know you can't ever
Smile for me again
But I'll always remember
Your scent

I'm alone in this empty place
With pieces of the memories
I was putting them together from the start
Then I suddenly thought of your smile
So I quietly close my eyes again

I know you can't ever
Come back to me again
But please remember me

I know you can't ever
Smile for me again
But I'll always remember
Your scent
