Beautiful, the moment I first saw you
My breath was taken away, my legs turned into jelly
How could I approach you?
Will my heart show? My entire body loses strength

I'm going crazy cause I love
I'm going crazy
I think you are perfect for me
Can you hold my hand?
Can you walk with me?
As you look into my eyes?

When you come to me, give me a message, you
I can give you everything
I'm need your lover, I need you
You keep appearing before my eyes, it's only you

Beautiful, how could you be like that?
You're so pretty that it's annoying
Did you find out?
Just as I want, yeah baby
You're coming to me, my entire body loses strength

I'm going crazy cause I love
I'm going crazy
I think you are perfect for me
Can you hold my hand?
Can you walk with me?
As you look into my eyes?

When you come to me, give me a message, you
I can give you everything
I'm need your lover, I need you
You keep appearing before my eyes, it's only you

What a beautiful weather
I feel good
I need your smile

Don't say that this will be the beginning
Because it will always be like the beginning
Just like Marilyn Monroe, the valuable you
She's nothing compared to you
Do you know or don't you know?
You're like a fantastic diamond ring
Like a water drop, like the wind

When you come to me, give me a message, you
I can give you everything
I'm need your lover, I need you
You keep appearing before my eyes, it's only you
