

Espionage

Rainbow Kitten Surprise

Red roses in the bottle at the bottom of the pool
See you there tomorrow maybe, baby, play it cool
He loves you, he loves you not, baby, know the rules
Picking petals never made nobody choose

Blue oceans in your eyes and in my dreams they come alive
Skeletons in my closet, I might barely survive
They love me, they love me not, running for my life
For no matter when it's time, get your shades for the shine
You want

Everything we are
Everything is hard
This is espionage
I spy your heart breaking

Red rover send me over, oh you better pick a side
I told you I'd come and hold you, I'm just waiting for a ride
He loves you, he loves you not, baby, it's alright
Grip your heart, or at least you tried

Blues are melancholic and I'm tryna fill the void
Watching secret agent movies, and I'm singing 'bout a boy
Does he love me? He loves me, I don't think that it's a choice
I might flip a coin, I can't hear you through the noise
They set you up

Everything we are
Everything is hard
This is espionage
I spy your heart breaking (Breaking)

Fire, light a candle, uh-huh
Like you're heading up a mass
Me, I burn out everything
Including where you at
Hope you don't forget who you are

Everything we are (Everything we are)
Everything is hard (Is hard)
This is espionage
I spy your heart breaking
I spy your heart breaking
I spy your heart breaking
