

Fail!

Rainbow Kitten Surprise

Believe me
I never wanted to be this way
Never wanted to be this fake
Never thought that I'd be this age
And fail so soon
We'll settle down out west
T-shirts from low class outlets
Posters we wish we were
And pictures of favorite stages
Look at the cage I've been caught up in
Look at the way I've been brought up
Look at the pain I called
My God I never wanted it bad enough, well

Bury me in some fashion
In something fashionable
With a procession whose words
Sound like a song I used to know
And never wrote
'Cause it was beautiful and predictable like

How did two feet in the same boat
How did two keys on the same note
If you knew I wish you would've never said so
But we'll go faking it, feeling it
Feeling like we were the realest shit
I don't see it that way anymore
See a mistake anymore

Bury me in some fashion
In something fashionable
With dirt and words that
Sound like a song we used to know
But never wrote
'Cause it was beautiful and predictable like

Oh, oh, all I ever wanted
How'd I ever fail so soon?
Oh, oh, there goes all I ever wanted
How'd I ever fail so soon?
Oh, oh, all I ever wanted
How'd I ever fail so soon?
Oh, oh, there goes all I ever wanted
How'd I ever fail so soon?
