

No Vacancy

Rainbow Kitten Surprise

Break first, I break fast
And hope it don't last too long
Hope you don't find someone like me
I care, but I'm tired
Swear you won't die if I turn off the lights
I swear I won't mind if she's better than I am

I guess I meant it when I said I never loved you
But I never meant for it to hurt this bad
When you call, don't ask me how I feel about it
I don't know
I'm sorry though
I am, I am
Save your lights for all the colors
They'll bring you in your sleep
(Hey, hey, hey, hey)
Don't waste a light on me
Save your eyes for someone brighter
Than I will ever be
Don't hesitate to bring me to my knees
(Hey, hey, hey, hey)
No vacancy

God damn, I'm breaking up the band
So save me like Mary, I
I deserve to die
I killed a friend in my heart baby, I

I guess I meant it when I said I never loved you
But I never meant for it to hurt this bad
When you call, don't ask me how I feel about it
I don't know
I'm sorry though
I am, I am
Save your lights for all the colors
They'll bring you in your sleep
(Hey, hey, hey, hey)
Don't waste a light on me
Save your eyes for someone brighter
Than I will ever be
Don't hesitate to bring me to my knees
(Hey, hey, hey, hey)
