

Re-entry

Rainbow Kitten Surprise

If I burn up on re-entry
Promise you'll be all you can Believe
Honest to God, I never thought
I'd be away so long
I can forgive you
If you forget me

Are you sure?
Delete it
On the shore
Put your feet in

I'm losing touch in your backseat
Roll down the windows, hold hands and Breathe deep
Honestly, Mom, I never thought
I'd feel a pain this strong
I can relive it
But you won't let me

Are you sure?
Delete it
On the shore
Put your feet in
Oh, by the way
I meant to say alright
We aren't stars, but I don't mind
Watching the highway headlights

Next time, I'll be ready
When you're leaving, come and get me
I'll be waiting by the exit
And the smoke will disappear

Are you sure?
Delete it
On the shore
Put your feet in
Oh, by the way
I meant to say alright
We aren't stars, but I don't mind
Watching the highway headlights
