

Waiting For A Sign

Rainbow

The streets are darkening
Am I wasting all my time?
I've been sitting here thinking drinking
Far too much whisky while
You've been drinking too much wine

And I know I shouldn't do it
Yeah, I stepped over the line
I've been standing here feeling cold and alone
And just out here waiting for a sign

Now I know I'm gonna make it
I missed all the signs
I got nothing left to lose out here
I've got nothing left, no

Now I know I'm gonna make it
I missed all the signs

I've been waiting here for hours
Kill you drive me out my mind, yeah
That you now are still and ready to leave
I've been out here waiting for
Out here waiting
Out here waiting for a sign
Yeah...

I've been waiting for your sign...
