

Orpheus

Raining Pleasure

Soul on fire I dared the gods
My shadow is your guide
Through the hollow and I came
You pause Follow me
Up the hill So hard So hard
To keep you from my eyes
Have to turn around
And see your face
Follow me
Come star of dawn
Come fall of night
Come follow me
I follow you through a broken dream
I've set my sail
So hard to wait
To see your face
Though I've been warned "never turn around"
