

Stay

Raining Pleasure

once there was a case back in the age of 55 celesta greeting cages no more offences that worked for me

so they lived in the dark in transparent homes
with blue birds yelling oh god, take all that you can from me you promised
why don't you see what you came to see

would you stay?

walk on me. see me stay pray for my bones
my blood and heart i 'll serve you feed me pepper and gasoline my soul is some gliding gel and my hands are free

so they wept and they slept and travelled around mosquito bites were hurting legs long in the afternoons-by tea time
should we consider their alibis

could you stay?
