

The Day

Raining Pleasure

Sitting in the time of day when the sun is very warm
Dreaming in a kind of way that a dream is always born Drifting with the things I feel when I put away my will Sleeping in the time of day when the sun is very still.
I'm alone here with you
Take my time, take me too.
Leaving in the time of day when the sun is getting cold
Walking in the kind of way when a story has been told Walking through the things I love and my heart is very still
Hoping that I'll dream again and I cannot live until.
I'm alone, I'm with you
Take my time, take me too.
