

Hero

Rains

Unborn, unchained
So willing to step out into life
I will, I wait,
It's only begun to come to me now

I wanna be your hero
I want to stop all the bad things
In the world
From touching you
For all of your life

You wait
For life
You're living it for the dreams you have at night
You'll have no regrets
Cause I'll always tell you
What you are made of

I wanna be your hero
I want to stop all the bad things
In the world
From touching you
For all of your life

Step out into life
Step into a beautiful world
You live it for the dreams you have
Dreams you have at night

I wanna be your hero
I want to stop all the bad things
In the world
From touching you
For all of your life
