

Let It Be

Rains

Let it be
(I can't let it be)
Please just lie to me
(Don't lie to me)
Won't you comfort me
(Don't comfort me)
Tell me I'm alright
All the evil me
(the evil me)
Won't just let me be
(you don't let me be)
Tries to bury me
(you just bury me)
It haunts me day and night
All my life I've tried to run and hide
From every one I've wronged and
And everything that's right

Wait just another moment
As I look back on this life that just begun
It feels like I'm the only one
Wait just another moment
As I look back on this life that's just begun it feels like I'm the only one

Fake a smile
(I can't fake a smile)
Just for a little while (not even for a little while)
Can't we make believe
(I can't make believe)

I tell you I'm alright
Can you see
(I can't see)
What's inside of me
(There's nothing inside of me)
Tries to bury me
(It will bury me)
Every day and night
All my life I've tried to run and hide from every one I've wronged
And every thing that's right

Wait just another moment I look back on this life that just begun
It feels like I'm the only one
Wait just another moment
As I look back on this life that's just begun it feels like I'm the only one

Wait just another moment I look back on this life that just begun
It feels like I'm the only one
Wait just another moment
As I look back on this life that's just begun it feels like I'm the only one
