

Stand Up

Rains

Don't ever let them think your heart stopped burning
Don't let them tell you that you're not worth earning
Don't let them think you don't deserve their attention
Don't let them think you don't deserve their affection

Open their eyes, open their eyes
You're strong you'll survive keep the fire burning

Stand Up
Even if the world stops turning
We all stop moving
Stand Up
Even when the sun stops shining it all stops burning
Stand Up
Then you can say, This isn't the end for me

Don't ever let them think they are your addiction
Don't ever let them take away your conviction
You need to prove you'll be the last one standing
Now it's time to release all of your passions

Open their eyes, open their eyes
You're strong you'll survive keep the fire burning

Stand Up
Even if the world stops turning
We all stop moving
Stand Up
Even when the sun stops shining it all stops burning
Stand Up
Then you can say, You were not there for me
