

Seventh

Raised Fist

'Cause I'm sick, sick of all this shit
Heads are thick on these pricks
Quick and fast internet
Lips and ass pictures are imminent
We are just bricks, politics and tricks
Media playing you quick, man
And there is no hate, you just love 'em chicks
And this is why you send them photos of your di-

-saster
We are moving too fast, we might crash
Still some these idiots wanna go faster
And these people are fast to ask
And no one is looking into the past for f*cking answers

Bands only wanna look mean
And scream like boy band dreams
Reunite the f*cking scene
If you know what I mean

Another straight from the heart
When all the others fell apart
Seven big ones, since the start
Now listen up 'cause we are tearing this apart

Bloodshed, coming up ahead
You are on the edge, you're seeing red
Lies are widespread, I just read your name
In another braindead right wing thread
They are coming closer
You are looking over your own shoulder
Terrorists everywhere, they are taking over

It's a disaster

When people just wanna sit around
Count money and watch them piles grow faster
And these people are fast to ask
And no one is looking into the past for f*cking answers

And scream like boy band dreams
Honestly, reunite the f*cking scene
If you know what I mean

Another straight from the heart
When all the others fell apart
Seven big ones, since the start
Now listen up 'cause we are tearing this apart

Influencer reality
Beats scientists' insanity
What you receive is not extreme
We are naïve, you're just unique
PC elite trying to deceive
Enough of this hospitality
You're not racist, your housekeeper

Is of another nationality

Another straight from the heart
When all the others fell apart
Seven big ones, since the start
Now listen up

Another straight from the heart
When all the others fell apart
Seven big ones, since the start
Now listen up 'cause we are tearing this apart
Another straight from the heart
Another straight from the heart
